2011-12 Performance: Exceeds Standard

Prior to the 2011-12 school year, Core Question 1.1 asked "Is the school making adequate yearly academic progress (AYP), as measured by the Indiana Department of Education's system of accountability?" Beginning with the 2011-12 school year, the Indiana Department of Education (IDOE) received a waiver for the United States Department of Education to replace the state's measure of Adequate Yearly Progress (AYP) with the new A-F accountability system which was adopted by the State Board of Education in February 2012. As such, AYP is not available for the 2011-12 school year.

For the 2011-12 school year, the Mayor's Office has determined that Core Question 1.1 will be determined using the state's new accountability system, based on the above rubric.

Herron High School (HHS) received an 'A' under the state's traditional school accountability model. Based on their performance in the 2011-12 academic year, the school exceeds the Mayor's Office standard for this indicator.
